Motley & Mac Presents

Best of Fringe Variety

Now returning for a fourth year, underdog cabaret Best of Fringe Variety has proven to be indisputably popular at the Adelaide Fringe Festival 2012-14 with its slick production, quality acts, and balanced mix. As the first independent daily live show at the Fringe to showcase ALL different types of entertainment, it has been an unbridled success. The show features 5 quality guest acts in 5 completely different genres, with a different lineup each night, offering the greatest selection of entertainment on stage for the Fringe-goer who is overwhelmed by choice in a bloated Fringe program. There is a mixture of regular acts and guests each night, allowing the show to be choreographed and slick, suiting the cabaret style venue.

This year the show will continue to be hosted and produced by two established comedians and magicians themselves... Patrick McCullagh, IRE (“Don’t miss him” - The Advertiser) and Tim Motley, USA (★★★★★) “Tour de Force” - London Free Press).

Playing in Gluttony’s cabaret venue, La Petite Grande, Best of Fringe Variety will continue to offer the most variety of quality entertainment at the festival, every night but Mondays. There will be burlesque dancers, puppeteers, magicians, singers, acrobats, jugglers, clowns, comedians, tap dancers, strong men, musicians, hula hoopers, bubble sculptors, and anything else of quality we can get our hands on on any given night. Previous acts include Boy with Tape on His Face, Sammy J, Randy, Mickey D, Greg Fleet, Tom Flanagan & Dave Callan.

“This is a discerning group that only picks the A cuts, and they will guarantee you a wonderful night of cabaret goodness.” - The Heckler
